MISS KNEESSI AND MR. SOMERVELL MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

A quiet but very interesting wedding took place last night at the parsonage of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. when Mr. Wm. H. Somervell and Miss Grace A. Kneessi were united by Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, paster of the church. Miss Edith Morgan played the wedding march, and the young couple, preceded by Mr. Charles Gallagher, best man, and Miss May Griffin, bridesmaid, passed from the pastor's study into the front parlor, where the minister awaited them. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Somerveil held an informal reception, after which they left for a trip of about a week through the northern part of Pennsylvania. Only the near rela-tives of both parties were present, with the exception of Mr. Howard M. Pruden, Mr. Charles D. Church and Mr. Leroy W. Herron, close friends of the groom. Senator and Mrs. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs

Townsend and Mrs. J. Dorman Steele gave theater parties last night. The wedding day for Miss Edith Morton and Mr. William Corcoran Eustis is now announced for Monday, April 30. Mrs Morton, with the bride-elect, and Miss Alice Morton, sail from the other side Saturday. Gen. Draper, ambassador to Rome, and

Gen. Draper, ambassador to Rome, and Mrs. Draper have been entertaining a great deal lately in honor of the engagement of the latter's niece, Miss Colburn, to Mr. de Halpert, the Russian attache in the eternal city. The wedding will take place October 1, at Hopedale, Mass. Mrs. Colburn, the mother of the young woman, gave a large dinner at the Grand Hotel for her daughter and her fiance.

gave a large dinner at the Grand Hotel for her daughter and her fiance.

Dr. Lewis Rutherford Morris, the fiance of Miss Katherine Clark, was an usher yesterday at the marriage, in New York, of Miss Susan De Forest Day and Dr. Charles T. Parker. The bride's dress was a superbone of point d'alencon lace, with which was worn a bonnet of yellow lace straw, the front trimmed with three wings of lace straw and a bow of narrow black velvet ribbon, and directly in front was placed a graceful cluster of pink roses. About the tiny bonnet crown there was an inch-wide band of the velvet ribbon, which ended in a tiny bow on one side. In her hair, catching the stray locks, was a brooch formed of an Immense opal, diamond set. About her neck she wore Dr. Parker's wedding gift, a superb collar formed of ten rows of pearls, with crossing bands of diamonds, from which was suspended a large Maltese cross of uncut. She carried neither bouquet nor prayer book, but a gold lorgnon.
